6th Annual Music Showcase

Show Dates: November 2 – 9, 2008

Once again, it is time for WJA 2008, and we are going over the top this year... our biggest plans ever and more is in the planning for this blowout 6th Anniversary. The event is bigger and better than ever, both here in the states and overseas. New arrangements and new friends to start our next 5 years to come, WJA 2008 is ready to step this event up to a whole new level of serious fun! Yes... we have great musicians ready to bring our messages of rhyme and reason, packaged in these bottled songs, to the shores of Amsterdam. Most of us fans already support these same artists in their music stateside and are ready to share the wealth of talent with the rest of the world, one party at a time. Remember, all travelers are patrons of the arts with the proceeds going directly to artists' travel expenses. Simply put, WonderJam in Amsterdam is the audience-driven idea that talented people, on and off stage, taking the challenge to create original arrangements, with musicians and fans, from many walks of life, will treat us all to once-in-a-lifetime live musical experiences, over and over again...and we are in Amsterdam to boot: the hippest metropolis on the planet, next to Austin! We are honored to expose European fans to our way of life through music with so much Texas-based talent on the playbill. WJA 2008 has a four-night run of music with some seriously talented musicians and bands, including many European special guest musicians too. Returning WonderJam artists for 2008 are...drum roll please...

Of course, Carolyn Wonderland (multi-category award winner, multi-instrumentalist, labeled singer/songwriter recording artist) is our featured artist for this 6th annual, WonderJam in Amsterdam. She is the inspiration for our event and it is named in her honor (and her birthday week too). Wonderland and her band, with her long-term musical partners: Cole El-Saleh (keyboards and bass) & Michael 'Lefty' Lefkowitz (drums), take over the stage ever year and light up the room while the crowd goes wild. Wonderland has a new CD out this year and will perform her music with, as always, many local Amsterdam guest musicians wanting to play along. There will be some incredible jamming and relentless smiling throughout the week, and far beyond. Hey, speaking of far beyond, D. Brown Fisher, another returning WJA artist will perform his originals with his band. Fisher is a multi-media artist and musical poet: with a heavy tone on the lyrics, a voice to lay them down, and a pounding strum on the guitar to prime the mind to receive. Performing with Fisher, again for the 4th year in a row, is Speedy Sparks (on bass) of the legendary Doug Sahm bands: Texas Tornadoes and the Sir Douglas Quintet, just to name a few. Together, these two hit a deep groove and find the other side. Fisher also has a debut CD release this year. And now Shandon Sahm will join us to rock out on some old Doug Sahm songs (his dad) with Speedy Sparks (dad's bass player) and others. This is a rare set of music and we are privileged to have our ears on it, only in Amsterdam.

And others want to join the WJA family for 2008: TBA... Remember, these are just the Texas-based artists that are locked-in to the week so far (past years have added some musical fun late in the game). So stay tuned to the moment with the latest information, check out more on these musicians, and get on board the WonderJam in Amsterdam 2008 musical experience at the website provided.

Those wishing to join us for WonderJam in Amsterdam 2008 better prepare for an audience experience extravaganza. Travel packages for fans are available now through this limited offer. And thanks to the guys at ColorWarp.net and ToneGlobe Music for working, year after year, the artist travel and donating so much time to the promotions. Our WonderJam fans will have WJA 2008 representatives in Amsterdam escorting our group throughout the week, and be treated as patrons of the arts. Travel dates are Nov. 2 - 9, 2008, departing & returning Sundays with non-stop, roundtrip airfare to and from Houston/Amsterdam, transit to and from airport-hotel by private shuttle bus, 6 nights hotel accommodations with private facilities, VIP Pass to all WonderJam events, sponsor discounts and specials, and more...with all taxes, tips, and fees included (except credit card purchase fees). If you need special arrangements for your travel dates or locations of departure other than Houston, give us a call... we can customize your package. Just inquire through the WonderJam representative info below, or your favorite WonderJam artist website will have a link too. First come, first serve policy extends to fan travelers based on availability of particular packages. If interested in a great excuse to travel or just treating yourself to the qualities in life, come rock out with us this year at WonderJam in Amsterdam 2008!
